1. Offer information to homeowners on how to stabilize/maintain and revitalize communities.

Medium Term: Two to five years

1. Educate “Community Capacity”

How to maintain properties so that we do not “devalue” our neighborhoods.

Long Term:

1. Promote “better quality” single and multi-family development. Continuing education of entire process of home purchase for our residents.

Strategies:

Short Term: Our goal is to address Social Issues (be responsible for upkeep of personal properties, neighborhoods and the community as a whole).

1. Action
 - Training, neighborhood watch/community associations.
 - Develop strategies for community revitalization.
 - Code Enforcement.

Mid Term: Our goal is to go door to door and distribute information, conduct workshops, meetings, etc. on maintenance (invitations to laborers, contractors, home inspectors, etc. for information).

1. Action
 - Establish clean up committees.

Long Term: Our goal is to develop a system(s) promoting home owners and tenant associations for property maintenance.

1. Action

- Organize a coalition of local government builders, bankers and planners to ensure quality development for all residents in Alachua County.

Plan needs significant work as to implementation phases, measurable criteria and action plans.

Civic, Social Organizations and Community Leaders

Short Term: One to two years

1. To create a directory of community/civic organizations (This directory would include name, contact information, mission and/or description, programs and activities, meeting dates and three major events).

Strategy 1: Identify all community and civic organizations.

Strategy 2: Create a document and send to each community/civic organization.

Strategy 3: Develop funding for production.

Performance Measure: Distribute directory to public.

Medium Term: Two to five years

1. To create a community/civic website with a calendar.

Strategy 1: Create a list serve.

Strategy 2: Send a document requesting calendar of events for the year for each organization (not meeting dates).

Strategy 3: Develop website calendar based on submissions.

Performance Measure: Analysis/measure website with active calendar.

Long Term:

1. Collaboration and coordination of programs and activities that can be beneficial for African-Americans in Alachua County.

Strategy I: Develop an annual meeting of community/civic organizations.

Performance Measures: Annual meeting analysis of previous year's information.

This goal should include training and mentoring of community leaders, may be combined with data base concept of several other organizations.

African American Legal Community

Short Term: One to two years

1. Increase and enhance communication among all African American Attorneys in Alachua County.

Strategy: Utilize the Josiah T. Walls Bar Association membership role and Bar Journal to identify attorneys.

Measure in one month we will produce a document that lists all the African American attorneys in Alachua County and their expertise.

In task can occur in one month, should not be the goal. This does in no way indicate a measure for an increase in communication.

Medium Term: Two to five years

1. Identify and publish a list of African American attorneys to provide legal advice and litigate problematic issues that affect the African American community.

i.e. Employment and housing discrimination.

2. Support efforts to restore restoration of civil rights. Assist in increasing the number of persons who apply and obtaining supporters for future constitutional amendments.
Serves better as a short term due to ongoing efforts – measurable and obtainable.

Long Term:

1. Increase the number of African American Attorneys.
2. Increase the information and education about the legal profession in elementary, middle and high school.
3. Create public interest legal groups that focus on issues affecting the black community.

Good goals in long term area, need extensive work on structure.
